“Operational Leadership”

People, passion and profit – key leadership strategies

This development programme, run over approximately 6 months, helps line managers to improve management and manufacturing skills to add value to their business. Participants will increase their capacity, confidence and capability in leading people and improving their manufacturing processes.

Next Programme commences in Bristol on 20th January 2010, in collaboration with University of Exeter Business School

Cost £1,475 (eligible applicants may be able to apply for additional Government Support/scholarships)

“ Of all the courses I have attended, I have not experienced the level of commitment shown by those delegates for that learning experience. ”

Dave Watson, operations manager
Ilchester Cheese Co

“ It’s a development programme which lasted a few months, but will stay with me for the rest of my life. ”

Mark Hill, production manager
Smurfit Kappa Machine Systems

“ I believe the OLP programme has changed me for the better – the way I think and act as a leader. ”

Chris Pengelly,
